Summertime Faith:

How to Live for Christ This Summer

There's more to summer than relaxing on the beach. While there is plenty of value in rest, you'll also want to take advantage of the many restorative and personally fulfilling opportunities that this unique season provides.

Strengthen Your Relationships: Christ instructs us to love one another and yet, mired down in our usual to-do lists, we fail to follow this basic command. We are built by the master Creator to have fulfilling relationships, and for a Christian there are few worthier pursuits than to spend time with loved ones. If you've spent months away from them, summer may grant you the time you need to maintain or even strengthen these bonds. From pool parties to backyard barbecues, you'll enjoy catching up in person, rather than over the phone or social media. It's not all about lighthearted conversation. As a Christian, you are called upon to care for others. Keep an eye open to suffering around you. Be prepared to provide emotional and spiritual support where it's needed. Your friends and family members should know that they can unburden themselves of their worries and fears in your presence and that you're always happy to help.

Embrace a Spirit of Service: Opportunities for volunteerism abound during the summer months. Many churches have ways to serve in a small way on Sundays and beyond. Dedicate yourself to a worthy cause and determine where your talents can best be utilized. Whether you commit to a few hours here and there or go all out with an in-depth volunteer project, you will gain a greater sense of confidence as you see how your efforts benefit others in your community.

Relearn to Pray: If you've fallen into a habit of only praying on Sundays or when you're worried about an upcoming exam, it's time to break out of the trap and establish a more routine prayer life. Summer provides you with more time to relearn how to pray, and the impact prayer has in our lives. Make this summer a season of intention. There's nothing wrong with relaxation, but you'll come away feeling far more rejuvenated if you take this time to invest in your faith journey.

Have A Blessed Summer.

REMEMBERING ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH, MAKING A CHARITABLE BEQUEST:

Having a properly made will is one of the best gifts anyone can leave their loved ones in the event of their passing. It also ensures that charities and causes closest to their hearts will be sustained. By putting the parish in their will, parishioners can help the Church faithfully carry out the pastoral mission entrusted to her by our Lord, for generations to come. For more information, please call the Parish office of St. Joseph Church : 416 466 7815 or 416 518 0276

Liturgical Ministries: Re-engage. Renew. Respond. – September 17

From: Michelle Brylowski, Associate Director, RCIA and Liturgical Formation The Office of Formation for Discipleship is pleased to offer a morning of re-engagement in liturgical ministries on Saturday, September 17, from 10:30 a.m. to 12 p.m. All liturgical coordinators, parish liturgy committee members and liturgical ministry volunteers are invited to attend, including lectors, music ministers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, sacristans, altar servers and ministers of hospitality. As life begins to settle down and take on a new sense of normality, parishes are eager to re-invigorate their ministries by building on the dedication of returning liturgical ministers and by encouraging new volunteers to participate in the liturgical life of the parish. We are planning for this to be a hybrid event. Please save the date and stay tuned for more information.

Sunday Mass Obligation: Given that most of the health and safety restrictions in our parishes are no longer in place and the faithful are able to attend the celebration of the Eucharist once again, the basis for the dispensation from the Sunday obligation has dissipated and is no longer in effect. The Church does not obligate people to do the impossible. If individuals, based on their conscience, cannot attend Mass for a grave reason, including a great vulnerability to COVID-19 or because they are self-isolating to limit the spread of illness, then they are excused from their Sunday obligation, as the law of the Church allows. If you are well, the pastors encourages the faithful to return to the practice of attending Mass in-person.
