EYES OF FAITH

To see with the eyes of faith is to perceive life beyond what is immediately visible. It is a way of seeing that does not rely solely on evidence, logic, or appearances, but on trust in a deeper reality at work beneath the surface of everyday experiences. While physical sight shows us facts and outcomes, the eyes of faith invite us to look for meaning, purpose, and hope even when circumstances feel uncertain or difficult.

In moments of suffering or confusion, it is easy to rely only on what we can see. Pain feels overwhelming, answers seem absent, and the future appears unclear. Through ordinary sight, these moments can appear empty or unfair. Faith, however, offers a different perspective. It does not deny hardship or pretend that struggles are insignificant. Instead, it allows us to believe that even within brokenness, something valuable may be forming. The eyes of faith remind us that growth often occurs in silence and that transformation frequently begins in places we least expect.

Seeing with the eyes of faith requires trust and patience. Faith does not always explain why events unfold as they do, but it encourages us to remain steady while waiting for understanding. Much like a journey taken in darkness, faith does not illuminate the entire path at once. It gives just enough light for the next step. This kind of vision teaches humility, acknowledging that not everything is meant to be fully understood immediately. The eyes of faith also influence how we view ourselves. Instead of defining our worth by success, failure, or the opinions of others, faith affirms inherent value. It invites us to see ourselves as works in progress, shaped by grace rather than perfection. When mistakes occur, faith allows room for forgiveness and renewal, offering hope that no experience is wasted.

Equally important is how faith reshapes our vision of others. Seeing with faith encourages empathy over judgment and compassion over criticism. It allows us to recognize the unseen struggles people carry and to respond with kindness. Through this lens, differences become opportunities for understanding rather than division, and love becomes an intentional practice rather than a conditional response. Doubt often accompanies faith, and this does not weaken it. In fact, doubt can deepen faith by challenging it to grow stronger and more honest. The eyes of faith do not close themselves to questions; they remain open, trusting that uncertainty can coexist with belief. Faith is not the absence of fear or questioning, but the decision to move forward despite them.

God less;

Fr. Roshan Loy D'Souza, CSC

REMEMBERING ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH,

Making a charitable Bequest:

Having a properly made will is one of the best gifts anyone can leave their loved ones in the event of their passing. It also ensures that charities and causes closest to their hearts will be sustained. By putting the parish in their will, parishioners can help the Church faithfully carry out the pastoral mission entrusted to her by our Lord, for generations to come. For more information, Contact:

The Pope's Monthly Intentions for January 2026: For Prayer With The Word of God.

Let us pray that praying with the Word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us build a more fraternal & missionary Church.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

"Let the little children come to me..." (Matthew 19:14) The goal of the Children's Liturgy is to help young children celebrate the Liturgy of the Word in a way that is meaningful and appropriate for their age.

We warmly invite parents to bring their children to the Sunday 10:00 am Mass at St. Joseph's Church and encourage them to take part in this special liturgical experience.

Calling All Children! Join Our Altar Servers and Children's Choir!

We warmly invite all children to become part of two very special ministries in our church community:

Altar Servers: Would you like to help at Mass in a special way? Altar serving is a wonderful opportunity for children to grow in faith, learn more about the Mass, and serve God and the parish. Training will be provided.

Children's Choir: Do you love to sing? Join our joyful Children's Choir and help lead the parish in worship through music! Choir members learn new songs, develop their musical gifts, and make new friends.
